

Requirements for Business Law Concentration (for students subject to the experiential requirement only)

Faculty Advisors:

Professor Barbara White	(x4536, rm. 1101)	bwhite@ubalt.edu
Professor Cassandra Havard	(x5038, rm. 1113)	chavard@ubalt.edu
Professor Fred Brown	(x4537, rm. 540)	fbrown@ubalt.edu
Professor Jaime Lee	(x5390, rm. 418)	jlee@ubalt.edu

1. Required courses:

- Business Organizations (recommend taking in second year, preferably first semester, for day students; recommend taking in second or third year for evening students)
- Federal Income Tax (recommend take in second year for day students; recommend taking in second or third year for evening students)

2. Choose one of the following:

- Commercial Law
- Sales & Leases

3. Choose three of the following courses. Of the three courses, one must either satisfy the scholarly writing requirement or be designated below as a writing course for purposes of the concentration. Additionally, one of the courses must be experiential. (While three courses must be taken in this category, a particular course may count as both an experiential course and a designated writing course for purposes of this category's requirements.)

- Security Regulations
- Antitrust
- International Business Transactions
- Advanced Business Organizations Seminar (scholarly writing)
- Banking Law Workshop (experiential) (writing)
- Transactional Skills Workshop (experiential) (writing)
- Business Planning Workshop (experiential) (writing)
- Advanced Legal Research involving a business law topic that is approved by Business Law Concentration advisors (scholarly writing)
- MSBA-UB Business Law Clerkship Fellow (writing) (experiential)
- Community Development Clinic (experiential) (writing)
- Corporate Counsel Externship (experiential)
- Securities and Exchange Commission Externship (experiential)
- Attorney Practice Externship involving business law that is approved by the Director of the Attorney Practice Externship in consultation with the Business Law Concentration advisors (experiential)

While not part of the concentration requirements, the following courses are recommended for students wanting to specialize in Business Law:

General:

- Administrative Law
- Bankruptcy and Creditor Remedies
- Cyberspace Law Seminar
- Electronic Evidence & Discovery Workshop
- Law & Economics
- Sports Law

Tax:

- Corporate Taxation
- Partnership Taxation
- Tax Policy Seminar