Session summaries

Legal Research Basics

This session will give you a framework for your first weeks as a 1L: how to read a case citation and learn about the parts of a published case, primary and secondary law and other helpful tips.

Model Class

Reading for law school classes is not the same as reading for undergraduate classes. This sample class will provide you with essential skills for going into your first law class. Be sure to read the assignments in advance.

Law School Financing

Start now taking charge of your finances. Understand the real cost of law school, get help prioritizing so that you can pay for your books and still have an (occasional) latte. Presented by Access Group.
