

UNIVERSITY OF BALTIMORE SCHOOL OF LAW

Application 2015-16

ADMISSION PROCESS AND REQUIREMENTS

Applicants are encouraged to complete the online application through the Law School Admission Council (www.lsac.org). Applicants may also file a paper application. The application processing fee is $60 and is nonrefundable.

To apply with a fee waiver, the applicant must apply with a paper application along with a copy of an approved Credential Assembly Service fee waiver.

The accurate answering of question 28 (academic, disciplinary and criminal history) is important to the University of Baltimore and to the state bar associations. Answering this question falsely leads to consequences beyond rejection of admission. Attach a detailed explanation if necessary.

Discovery by the admissions committee of any misrepresentation could result in the rejection of an application, revocation of an offer of admission, convening of a misconduct hearing by the LSAC and/or denial of admission to a state bar.

Contact the Office of Law Admissions to determine whether any particular situation falls under the purview of question 28. To ensure accuracy in completing the application, order and review relevant academic transcripts and/or court documents.

The School of Law reserves the right to request further information from college officials, law enforcement agencies and the courts.

A Maryland in-state residency determination for admission and tuition will be made by the Office of Law Admissions. To review the Maryland In-State Residency Status Form, visit law.ubalt.edu/apply.

First-Year Applicants: Admission Information

The admission cycle starts Sept. 15, when the Office of Law Admissions begins receiving applications for the class that will enter 11 months later. The responsibility for ensuring that all transcripts, test score reports and letters of recommendation have been received rests with the applicant. Applications are not accepted for the spring term.

There is no application deadline; however, it is recommended that applications be submitted prior to March 1. The University of Baltimore School of Law will admit students on a rolling basis.

Upon receipt of an application, a confirmation will be sent. Applicants will receive a user ID and password to access application status information online.

All applicants must submit an LSAT score and a complete CAS report. LSAT scores are valid for five years. For information concerning the LSAT and CAS, visit the Law School Admission Council website at www.lsac.org.

FIRST-YEAR STUDENT APPLICATION CHECKLIST

- ✓ transcripts from all undergraduate and graduate institutions sent to CAS—required for decision
- ✓ LSAT score
required for decision
- ✓ two letters of recommendation, which must contain the author's name, title, address, telephone number, email address and signature. If applicable, letters must be on organizational letterhead.

- ✓ resume
sent with application—not required for decision but recommended

Applicant files must, at a minimum, contain course hours equivalent to 75 percent of an applicant's undergrad degree and no more than 30 unconverted hours as found on the applicant's CAS report.

Before enrolling, applicants must have earned a bachelor's degree from a regionally accredited institution.

Additional Requirements for International Students and Students Who Attended College/University Outside of the United States

Applicants who attended a post-secondary institution outside of the United States must arrange to have their transcripts sent to LSAC. Documents will be processed through the Credential Assembly Service.

Decision

Decisions are communicated via letter from the Office of Law Admissions, via email or via the online portal. Under no circumstances will a decision be communicated by telephone.

Only the applicant may inquire about the status of his or her application.

Applicants accepted prior to March 31 must pay an acceptance fee of $300 by April 15 to reserve a place in the entering class. The acceptance fee will be applied to tuition and is nonrefundable.

Waiting List

Some applicants will be placed on a waiting list and may be considered for admission as seats become available.

Candidates on the waiting list may not be notified of a final admission decision until mid-August.

The waiting list may be reduced periodically as it becomes apparent that few seats are likely to become available.

Transfer Applicants: Admission Information

Students in good standing at other ABA-approved law schools may transfer after one full year of completed coursework. Students who have completed two years of law school are not eligible for transfer.

Coursework completed with a grade of at least C (2.0) qualifies for transfer. To transfer either half of a two-semester course, both semesters must be completed with a grade of at least C (2.0).

Students may transfer up to 29 credits. Under certain circumstances, the admissions committee may permit a student to transfer up to 45 credits.

Decisions are made after all required materials, including a final official transcript, have been received.

Visiting Applicants: Admission Information

Students who currently attend another ABA-approved law school and have completed one full year of study may apply to take courses as visiting students during the summer term.

Students who have completed two years of coursework may apply to visit for the final year of study.

A visiting student may not earn more than 32 credits at the University of Baltimore.

Visiting Student Application Checklist

Visiting students must supply a letter from the dean of the home institution. The letter must state that the student:

- ✓ is in good standing
- ✓ may visit for the term
- ✓ may transfer all credits successfully completed at the University of Baltimore School of Law.

In addition, the student must submit a letter stating the basis for the request, including any hardship or compelling circumstances.

Applicants With a J.D. From an ABA-Approved Law School: Admission Information

Graduates of ABA-approved law schools may enroll in an upper-level course as special students if space is available. Graduates must complete the application for admission and submit an official copy of their law school transcript with degree granted.

TRANSFER STUDENT APPLICATION CHECKLIST

- ✓ current CAS report
required for decision
- ✓ official law transcript reflecting a minimum of 18 credits
sent to UB School of Law—required for decision
- ✓ letter of good standing from the dean of current law school
sent to UB School of Law—required for decision
- ✓ personal statement
sent with application—not required for decision but recommended
- ✓ one letter of recommendation
sent with application or to CAS—not required for decision but recommended

POLICIES AND DIRECTIONS

Nondiscrimination

The University of Baltimore (“UB” or “University”) does not discriminate on the basis of sex, gender, race, religion, age, disability, national origin, ethnicity, sexual orientation, gender identity or other legally protected characteristics in its programs, activities or employment practices. Inquiries regarding discrimination related to educational programs and activities should be directed to the Title IX coordinator, Anita Harewood, vice president, Office of Government and Community Relations, Academic Center, Room 336, phone: 410.837.4533, T9@ubalt.edu; dean of students, Office of Community Life, Academic Center, Room 112, phone: 410.837.4755, communitylife@ubalt.edu; or assistant vice president, Office of Human Resources, Charles Royal Building, Third Floor, 410.837.5410, mmaher@ubalt.edu. This includes inquiries regarding Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 as amended (“Title IX”) and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973.

Drug and Alcohol Use

The use or abuse of controlled or illegal substances, including alcohol, poses a serious threat to students’ health and welfare, lowering academic performance, damaging social relations, creating mental health and physical problems, and leading occasionally to illness and death. The University of Baltimore Drug and Alcohol Policy is designed to help protect the health and welfare of students and to maintain an atmosphere and environment appropriate for learning.

Drug Policy

The use, possession, sale, distribution or condition of being under the influence of controlled or illegal substances on University premises, except as permitted by law, is strictly prohibited.

Alcohol Policy

The University permits the use of alcoholic beverages in designated areas on campus if such use conforms to all applicable alcoholic beverage law and the specific University regulations set forth in the Student Handbook. The use of alcoholic beverages on campus must also be consistent with the maintenance of a high standard of conduct.

Violations

Violations of laws and University policies and regulations regarding the use of controlled/illegal substances and alcohol are subject to prosecution through both civil authorities and the campus judicial system. Penalties through the latter system depend on a careful review of the entire circumstances of each individual case but take into consideration such factors as the accused person’s previous record, the nature of the substance and the degree of culpability. The range of University penalties includes, but is not limited to, disciplinary reprimand, loss of privileges, restitution, disciplinary probation, disciplinary suspension, disciplinary dismissal and disciplinary expulsion.

Directions to Campus

The main entrance to UB’s John and Frances Angelos Law Center is one block south of Baltimore’s Penn Station, which is served by Amtrak and Maryland’s MARC train systems. The Light Rail’s University of Baltimore-Mount Royal stop is two blocks from the Angelos Law Center, and the State Center Metro stop is four blocks from campus. The Jones Falls Expressway (I-83), which runs through the heart of Baltimore, has two exits at the University.

Updated directions and parking information may be found on the School of Law’s website. From the home page (law.ubalt.edu), click on “About the Law School” and select “Location and Directions.”

Student Right-to-Know and Campus Security Act (Public Law 101-542):

The Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act requires that colleges and universities publish and distribute an annual security report. This report includes campus crime statistics for the previous three years, policy statements concerning crime reporting, access to campus facilities, enforcement and arrest authority of campus police, crime prevention and procedures to be followed in sexual assault offenses. The act also provides for timely notice to the campus of crimes considered threats to safety and for the maintenance of a public crime log of all reported crimes. You may view and download this document by visiting www.ubalt.edu/ubpolice. You may also obtain a paper copy of the report from the University of Baltimore Police Department by calling 410.837.5520.
