EXPERIENCE

University of Baltimore School of Law, Baltimore, MD

Assistant Professor of Law

August 2022 – Present

Director of the Criminal Defense and Advocacy Clinic

Teaching Constitutional Criminal Procedure I (investigation). Starting in spring 2023, directing the new Defenders Advocacy Clinic, a six-credit course in which law students will represent indigent individuals charged with misdemeanors and low-level felonies in Baltimore City, Maryland.

Washington College of Law, American University, Washington, DC

Practitioner-in-Residence

July 2019 – June 2022

Taught weekly seminar and supervised law students in representation of indigent defendants in criminal defense clinic. In 2019-2020, the clinic represented individuals charged in Maryland with misdemeanors. In 2020-2021 and 2021-2022, the clinic transitioned to represent clients in D.C. Compassionate Release Act cases. Taught Criminal Procedure II (adjudication). Also served on law school faculty public interest committee and clinic faculty committee coordinating and leading weekly clinical faculty meetings.

Office of the Public Defender, Hudson County, NJ

Assistant Deputy Public Defender

September 2015 – June 2019

Represented indigent defendants in a wide range of felony matters in Superior Court. Wrote trial-court and appellate level briefs, one of which became a model distributed state-wide. Tried a homicide case involving extensive research to effectively cross-examine an expert witness. Established Hudson County's summer intern training program, which included teaching rising second- and third-year law students trial advocacy skills. Selected attorney-of-the-month in February 2017 by the New Jersey Public Defender.

Georgetown University Law Center, Washington, DC

Prettyman Fellow

August 2013 – August 2015

Carried fifteen to twenty pretrial misdemeanor and felony cases, thirteen of which went to trial, in addition to post-conviction and witness representation cases. Supervised five students per semester on their two misdemeanor cases. Completed six-week intensive training program. Took classes and training sessions on clinical pedagogy.

Honorable Neal Kravitz, District of Columbia Superior Court, Washington, DC

Law Clerk

August 2012 – August 2013

Researched and wrote legal memoranda on domestic relations, civil, and criminal issues.

Cohen Milstein Sellers & Toll, Washington, DC

Summer Associate, Law Clerk

May 2011 – May 2012

Researched, analyzed, and wrote memoranda on complex procedural issues regarding personal jurisdiction, discovery, and statute of limitations, as well as on substantive civil rights and employment law. Wrote a motion to exclude an expert witness for employee benefits litigation.

Juvenile Justice Clinic, Washington, DC

Student Attorney, Georgetown University Law Center

August 2011 – May 2012

Handled all aspects of juvenile clients’ matters in D.C. Superior Court, including motion practice, investigation, client interviewing and counseling, and trial. Conducted bench trial in robbery case, which resulted in a “not involved” verdict (the juvenile equivalent of “not guilty”). Participated in intensive training program.
